- a. "E-Sport Athlete" – Any person officially registered with Beta Sports to play in any Beta Sport produced e-sport tournament.
- b. "Agreement" – Any and all policies outlined in this document.
- c. "Venue" – Any physical space, property or resource pertaining to the location where the tournament is taking place. This includes, but is not limited to, convention rooms, halls, bathrooms, property perimeters and/or parking lots.
- d. "Event" – The specific tournament for which the participant is registering for.
- e. "Parent or Guardian" – If the participant is a minor at the time of official registration, this refers to the participant's biological parents or legal custodians.

- II. a. By clicking "agree" or signing this contract, you are agreeing to adhere to any and all policies outlined in this Agreement.

- III. a. If you are a minor at the time of official registration for the Beta Sports tournament, this entire Agreement applies to you and your Parent or Guardian. Please make special note of section X. MINORS AND PARENTS OF MINORS (not applicable to adult participants)

IV. GENERAL TOURNAMENT IDEOLOGY & GOALS

- a. Beta Sports strives to create an open and welcoming environment, where participants can feel safe to have fun and be their best. Beta Sports believes there is no other sport more inclusive than e-sports. By clicking "agree" or signing this contract, you are agreeing to do your part in helping us create an open and welcoming environment. An environment where your fellow participants feel safe, supported and are free to have as much fun as possible without infringing on another fellow E-Sport Athletes ability to do the same.
- b. To create such an environment, you agree to take individual responsibility for how you behave towards your fellow E-Sport Athletes, referees and spectators. By following the rules set out in this Agreement, you will help make the Beta Sports e-sports environment a place for every E-Sport Athlete, regardless of age or background.
- c. Note that these rules also apply outside of matches and tournament-sets for the entire duration of the event.

V. CONSEQUENCES & SEVERABILITY

- a. Breaking the rules of this Agreement could result in you, the E-Sport Athlete, being disqualified and/or removed from the Venue. Whether or not the infraction is severe enough to enforce the consequences as described here is at the sole discretion of Beta Sports and/or its authoritative representatives.

VI. SPORTSMANSHIP DON'Ts

- a. You, the Beta Sport E-Sport Athlete should never do any of the following –
  - 1. Express yourself in an overtly and/or intentionally offensive manner about other players or their actions in the game or at any time during the Event, regardless of whether they are opponents, teammates or anyone else.
  - 2. Use language, nicknames or other expressions for the sole purpose of belittling, offending or insulting another player for any reason.
  - 3. Use language or actions that are overtly and/or unnecessarily aggressive or violent towards another person, persons or property.
  - 4. Act in a threatening or violent manner.
  - 5. Cheat.
- b. Acting disrespectfully and/or aggressively towards anyone while a Beta Sports E-Sport Athlete will be grounds for removal and/or disqualification from the tournament.

VII. SPORTSMANSHIP DOs

- a. You, the good Beta Sport E-Sport Athlete is always willing to do any of the following –
  - 1. Encourage instead of mock. Be constructive and give helpful hints instead of showing frustration. This helps new players and contributes to creating a positive environment where all E-Sport Athletes can enjoy themselves.
  - 2. Show empathy. Control any negative emotions you might have before directing those feelings towards your fellow E-Sport Athletes. There are no rights and wrongs when it comes to how an E-Sport Athlete feels. However, there are rights and wrongs when it comes to how an E-Sport Athlete expresses those feelings. Typically, it is a good to treat people the same way you would want to be treated.
  - 3. You win more matches with positive words and thinking. It's much easier to win if the dialogue is constructive, open and tolerant – statistics produced by Riot Games show that players with constructive attitudes during difficult moments in matches win 10% more than the average!
  - 4. Be a good E-Sport Athlete regardless of whether you win or lose. Taunting a fellow player for losing a match or any other reason is not acceptable and will not be tolerated.
  - 5. Be a positive influence on other E-Sport Athletes. Your behavior makes a difference – so choose to be a good role model.

6. Analyze instead of complaining. Find ways to analyze your own game with an open mind and consider that there are ways in which you personally can improve on mistakes you made.
7. Respect fellow E-Sport Athletes, referees, organizers and Beta Sport representatives at all times.
